Getting It

That there is no One, only Three, is an unavoidable conclusion of examination. It is impossible to have one without the other two. Simply put, if somewhat metaphorically, there is only the Intendor, the Lover, and the Builder, the Three fold Consciousness of Cosmic Physics, or essentially, the three fold process of Creation.

This fact of physics, that the One is Three, lies at the heart of Cosmic Expression or what we call Art. It is not new to think of the Intendors of the various Planets, Solar systems, and Galaxies as Artists. Each has a different style. Each uses a different pallet of inexhaustible diversity to Image or Create their visions of the Possible. Thus, we have the Starry Vault, or the Cosmic Dense-physical Rendering of Infinity.

Since Infinity is infinite, this three step creative process which is in infinite motion (Just as there is no One, there is no Stop.) seems to be about the only acceptable statement that one can make concerning it.

“In the first solar system, the center which is Humanity was prepared, and the principle of intelligence came into manifestation.” Destiny of the Nations P. 24 It is worth noting that while the first system was steeped in knowledge or Intelligence, it lacked the energy of Love/Wisdom. “All wisdom is knowledge gained by experience and implemented by love.” The Rays and the Initiations p. 591

In this second solar system, the Planet is still largely dominated by Intelligence.

Observations and comments regarding the Purpose, Significance, and Meaning of the Starry Vault have not been that acceptable by Humanity. Ask Galileo, or a countless number of others who died in various ways trying to demonstrate that such things were not possibilities but facts of Cosmos.

Humanity (most of us anyway) does accept the unavoidable fact of the concrete existence of galaxies, solar systems, suns, and, planets. We also, agree that these “heavenly bodies”, just as do our dense physical bodies, go into and out of concrete manifestation. It is also recognized, again by many of us, that this process happens over time periods which are beyond the reach of our Intelligence.

They are not, however, out of the reach of our Wise Ones.

*How do I love thee? Let me count the ways.
I love thee to the depth and breadth and height
My soul can reach, when feeling out of sight
For the ends of being and ideal grace.
I love thee to the level of every day's
Most quiet need, by sun and candle-light.
I love thee freely, as men strive for right;
I love thee purely, as they turn from praise.
I love thee with the passion put to use
In my old griefs, and with my childhood's faith.
I love thee with a love I seemed to lose
With my lost saints. I love thee with the breath,
Smiles, tears, of all my life; and, if God choose,
I shall but love thee better after death.*

Elizabeth Barrett Browning

Still, there presently exists no concrete proof of any kind that Reason, Meaning, Significance, or Love are involved in this Infinite process. We, of course, also have reams and reams of ancient tomes (Some call it the Ageless Wisdom.) which outline in mind bending detail the initiatory and unavoidable presence of these energies in this infinite process. But we at present have nothing that can be put on a triple beam balance and weighed to prove its concrete existence. In short, We have nothing that can prove to the satisfaction of our dense physically focused Intelligence that any of those forces actually exist.

The Big Problem

Consequently, an amoral kind of intellectual sophistry, which frequently gets passed off as philosophy, can make any of it “mean” anything that you can cajole, convince, terrify, or force others to accept as “truth”. Understanding, realizing that the multidimensional cosmos which operates on the Laws of Cosmic Physics, does exist is simply beyond the capacity or functionality of a one dimension dense physical Intellect to grasp. Thus, our BIG problem.

Intelligence is not meant to be the understander of Intention. Intelligence is the How to do it. Love is the Under- Stander or the Why to do it, and Intention is the Will or the What to do. And as you might expect, these three always and only work as One.

This lack of Love, the vehicle of synthesis, is the reason why, when the pinnacle of the first solar system was reached, the system went into pralaya. It was only the first step in the eventual manifestation of a Grand Intention. If the experiment was to be successful it would be necessary to evolve a new way of comprehending or Knowing Truth. In this second manifestation of the Solar System, Earth is intended to evolve the Why do that. The Why, Love, encompasses the Motivation of the Will. Love or the Heart then directs Intelligence to manifest the forms that will meet the ends of The Intendor, the Will to Be.

Reality Vs. Illusion

The primary, human generated, systems of the present manifestation of the Plan— political, economic, religious, etcetera— are not the products of an Understanding of Cosmic Physics, which is the unique and amazing power of what we call Love. These current primary systems are by and large the products of highly intelligent, totally self-centered, dense-physically focused, amoral consciousnesses. They involve only two of the three necessary aspects to create a Real form, and thus they are illusions of Reality.

The systems are based on outworn separative concepts of ancient materialism: the identification of Self with the physical body, personal value is equated with separative personal power. This power is manifested by the ownership of property of all kinds, including other human beings, and the exclusivity or superiority of one’s self compared to others.

As a bit of that Ageless Wisdom points out, at the close of the first manifestation of this planet, “Certain units of humanity—then existent—were so completely conditioned by these material principles and so deliberately unready for moving on to the comprehension of another set of principles (more expressive of the divine nature) that they remained of ‘fixed and selfish material purpose'.... Forget not that the black magicians of today were the initiates of a previous solar system." The Rays and the Initiations P. 350

What those of us who have been "willing to move on" by reincarnating and serving to evolve the new consciousness have been experiencing for the past many, many thousands of years is the evolution of Group Conscious.

"Basically, it is not desire which prompts return but will and knowledge of the plan. It is not the need for achieving an ultimate perfection which goads the ego on to experience in form, for the ego is already perfect. The main incentive is sacrifice and service to those lesser lives that are dependent upon the higher inspiration (which the spiritual soul can give) and the determination that they too may attain planetary status equivalent to that of the sacrificing soul. It is in order eventually to negate the space-time concept and to prove it an illusion that the door in Cancer opens to the sacrificing, serving soul. Bear this always in mind as you study the subject of rebirth."
Esoteric Astrology p.324

We, Humanity, have carried this effort forward in the face of the enormously powerful efforts of Retrogressive forces of "fixed and selfish material purpose". They work tirelessly through the use of half-wayness, fear, and hate to hinder, slow down and eventually stop that evolution.

Their goal has always been and remains so today, to dominate the planet and turn it into bastion of Evil or outworn good. Essentially their aim is to return to the principles of materialism that were dominant in the first Solar system.

They have failed. And as the events of the last four hundred years, an eyeblink in the long trail, indicate, it is getting very near the end for Them.

It seems reasonable, to me anyway, that the Law of Free Will was not a condition of the experiment in the First System. But it is the Primary Law governing this phase of the experiment. These ancient materialistic laws have no respect for Free Will at all. They are based on sheer power (not just physical strength, but the power of intelligence used for selfish ends, the use of sophistry, or fear for the manipulation and domination of others) and the survival of the strongest, who in this time are the representatives of those ancient, once good but now outworn and evil, principles.

Free Will does not relegate individuals into scales of value of any sort including material wealth or moral superiority. Such scales are relics of materialism, and we are free to choose whether we will be ruled by them or not. This along with other leftovers from the First Solar System are what makes the Path from the selfish consciousness to group consciousness, a path of constant striving and great struggle, but also the Path of Liberation. We are free to choose the Path of Reason, Meaning, Significance, or Love; all we have to do is to recognize that it exists.

One Dimensional Intelligence

Whatever the iteration, or modification, or expansion of logic, if the first statement's "truth" is an assumption based on one dimensional intelligence, chances are that it is wrong. The first statement in the old syllogism "All men are mortal", meaning they die, is simply not true. It is not true because no woman or man is his or her body.

The body or the forms which human beings use to manifest in dense physical dimensions do, as the forms of even Galaxies do, outwear their usefulness; or they can be so damaged that they lose their ability to function and do what we call die. When the user or the consciousness that integrated and gave direction and order to the matter that makes up the form leaves, the form, for whatever reason, disintegrates, and the matter returns to its normal state.

Because we have been conditioned for eons to think that we are our bodies, we call this eventually unavoidable process death. People assume that the death of the form means the end of themselves. It is this delusion that creates and drives fear and hate—the real killers of Life—which imprisons vast numbers of the present 7.8 billion units of consciousness on Planet Earth.

Infinite Liberation

It is precisely the Liberation from this specific delusion that all efforts, every tiny step toward Liberty are made. This notion that we are these forms is one of the major blockages keeping Humanity and evolution in prison. It is this delusion that only the heart can see through.

As Intelligence is the Way of the Mind; Love is the Way of the Heart. It is the vision of the Heart that helps us finally “Get It”.

“I Am That!”

“Toiler, when the energy is transmuted into an ocean of light, does thy consciousness quiver or expand? Toiler, is thy heart fearful or exultant when before thee looms Infinity?”
