

Triumph is Unavoidable

Over the years I have encountered many individuals who if they thought of it at all saw Scorpio as a time fraught with bad stuff. (For an in depth list of possible “bad stuff”, see Esoteric Astrology Treatise on the Seven Rays Volume III P. 205) They seemed to miss the fact that the final, therefore the major, keynote of Scorpio is Triumph. And as you may have noticed Triumph is...eventually...unavoidable.

I suspect that it is because we have such tiny time limited points of view that we allow the constant, unrelenting stream of hysteria and lies that is endeavoring to get us all worked up, intimidated, and frightened over "current" events gets us all worked up, intimidated and frightened over "current" events. I do not mean to imply that what has happened and is happening over these past few years is not meaningful and significant. I mean that we have this tendency to allow the deliberately generated confusion and its generator fear, to mess with our heads.

As we have noted, this is not the first time we have been in this cauldron. A conscious observation of our numerous previous experiences reveals the Path upon which Evolution, which has in past centuries been somewhat delayed, is unstoppably moving forward. And now with the growing presence of the Aquarian energy streams it is moving at an amazing rate of “speed”. (What does one call the emergence of Reality—that has been bottled up and blocked for some thousands of centuries—into the consciousnesses of billions, over a few hundred years?)

As we become more aware, more consciously filled with the Light of actual Reality, fear, hate, and such loses its power over us. And the Power of the Light constantly grows in strength. As the Light grows, we begin, finally, to GET IT.

It is my observation that the larger the picture one has of the history of what we went through in our evolving consciousness, the more accurate will be the understanding, of what we are experiencing in the so called present time. It has often been said that “history repeats itself”. And, of course, it does. Each cycle of the opening or closing spiral, as the case maybe, moves relatively close to, or distant from the preceding cycle in an ever ending spiral of Spirit into and out of Form.

In the Great Spiral of Evolution, the Great Depression was an inevitable and unavoidable manifestation of the classical delusion of one dimensional Reality. The President's, Herbert Hoover, effort to deal with the Great Depression using the con games called Laissez Faire, and “Capitalism” unavoidably failed. Hoover was soundly beaten by FDR in the 1932 election.

Today some 88 years later, with statics regarding unemployment, people unable to pay rent, by food, to say nothing about the numbers of covid infected, and dead, we are in a very ugly depression. This depression was/is being enabled through the efforts of the current President who is employing the same Laissez faire, and “Capitalistic” (You are what you Own.) techniques that actually generate these “depressions”.

Triumph is Unavoidable

FDR was elected President of the US. in November of 1932 the last year of the first 7year cycle of the current 100 year cycle. 2020 is the 2rd year of this last 7 year cycle of the 1925-2025 100 year cycle. (Did that get you dizzy?) FDR won the 1932 election carrying 42 of the 48 states by 8 million votes, or 57.4% of the approximately 39 million votes cast.

Today, 11 days from the 2020 election some 40 million votes have already been cast. As it has been said the wheel turns. Evolution and triumph are inevitable.

Now is a big chance to participate in a major evolutionary event. Remember that energy actually does follow thought.

Love! Think! Vote! Triumph is Unavoidable!
