

TURNING ON THE LIGHT

We have entered, Cancer, Leo, and Virgo, the first pause between the inbreathing and out breathing cycles of the 2022 yearly cycle. As we have been informed, the work is done in the pause between the breaths. In Cancer, we opened to and embraced the opportunity to Build a Lighted House.

Light and House, like Spirit and Matter, or Energy and Form, or Intention and Manifestation are the positive and negative, or giving and receiving energy poles of the Infinite multidimensional magnet we call Cosmos. We, humans, have been taught to reject the existence of a multidimensional cosmos and to believe that Cosmos consists of only the dense physical dimension that we can “prove” exists with dense physical evidence.

As one result, we have this ancient, deluded sense of the polar opposite energies of Life being locked in competitive opposition, where opposite means against. Rather than aspects of One Coherent Life, we have been taught for eons to see these as energy fields that are opposed to and at constant and unending war with each other. Thus the very concept of “polar opposites” is a twisted manufactured delusion of Reality.

It is impossible for two things to exist without there being a middle Thing. Life and Matter are not at war with each other. They are, literally, in LOVE with each other.

This so called war of the opposites is the product of ignorance. It was generated by retrogressive forces at the beginning to hide the fact that there is no conflict between the poles of any magnet. The connecting energy is Love. No Love, only chaos.

That we have an abundance of “things” that generate doubt, fear, and hate and feed the delusion of separation, chaos and death is also obvious. However, since the dense existence of such things, lack a heart or Love, they are actually illusions. They will, in terms of eons “rapidly” disintegrate and require the constant rebuilding of the dense physical models of the delusion. Hence we have the eons of revolutions of the Retrogressor’s desires.

We also have, especially since 1450 or so the explosion of the Will of the Intendor which—in spite of the super ramped up efforts of the Retrogressors—has produced the amazing Evolution of Human Beings and the unstoppable Unfolding of the Plan for Earth and Humanity.

This is the story of Evolution. It is the Plan. The Plan can be delayed but it cannot be stopped. In the recent 5 tiny, tiny centuries the Plan has progressed at LIGHTENING speed. Buckle up. It is just etting started.
